

Informit TVNews

A multi-perspective record of world news and events

Informit TVNews is a comprehensive database of Australian television news, current affairs programs from free-to-air networks. It provides access to individual news stories dating from 2007, making it a valuable resource for research and media analysis. Updated daily, TVNews allows users to track how events are reported across the media.

Features:

- Free-to-air Australian news & current affairs Stay up to date with Australian news broadcasts as they happen. Informit TVNews provides to a wealth of news and current affairs content, ensuring you never miss a critical story or event.
- Individual news stories Rich Metadata supports all news segments, making it simple to find the stories you are looking for. Whether it's local, national, or international coverage, you'll have all the key stories at your fingertips.
- Comprehensive archives back to 2007 Access an extensive archive of past news broadcasts, providing valuable historical context. Whether you need to review past events or track ongoing issues, Informit TVNews offers a complete database of news media to support your work.

Key content:

7.30 Report

One Plus One

The Business

Afternoon Briefing

Find out more on informit.org/products/informit-tvnews/